

British Commission for Maritime History

New Researchers in Maritime History Conference 2018

ss Great Britain
Bristol
6-7 April 2018

Call for Papers

The British Commission for Maritime History, in association with the ss Great Britain Trust invites contributions to its twenty-fourth conference for new researchers. Hosted at the Great Western Dockyard in Bristol, the conference provides a unique opportunity for new scholars to present their work in an historic maritime setting.

The Conference supports emerging scholars who wish to share their work in a supportive environment and build relations with other maritime historians. We encourage applications from research degree students and warmly encourage participation by independent scholars. Contributions can address all aspects of maritime history in its broadest sense.

Those wishing to offer a paper should complete the online form available from <https://goo.gl/forms/3NIAZhERbptxtSTK2> or from the website www.maritimehistory.org.uk

Please direct any queries to h.r.doe@exeter.ac.uk

The deadline is 16 February 2018

Anyone interested in attending the conference without presenting a paper is also warmly invited to register an interest: further information will be sent to you in due course.
