

Centre for Port & Maritime History BATTLE OF THE ATLANTIC 80TH ANNIVERSARY CONFERENCE

As part of Liverpool's Commemoration of the Battle of the Atlantic the Centre for Port and Maritime History will be holding a one-day conference considering the legacies of that theatre of war with a particular focus on intelligence and anti-submarine warfare.

Harold Tomlin, The Battle of the Atlantic. 28 November to 10 December 1941, on board the destroyer HMS Vanoc. IWM A 6637.

Speakers: Capt. Sean Ryan (The Maritime Warfare Centre); Dr Jayne Friend (Portsmouth); Dr David Kohnen (Naval War College, USA); Dr Sarah-Louise Miller (Oxford); Dr James W E Smith (KCL); and Rear Admiral James Parkin CBE.

Saturday 20th May 2023, 0930 – 1800
Merseyside Maritime Museum, Royal Albert Dock, Liverpool,
L3 4AQ.

All delegates must register in advance at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/battle-of-the-atlantic-80th-anniversary-conference-tickets-580438496167> where full details of papers can be found.