

MA Modern History, Global City Bursary

- ❖ Closing date: 5pm, 9 July 2021
- ❖ Total Bursary: £15,000 (to include fees and stipend)

This is an exciting opportunity to join us in the History Department at LJMU and to work with National Museums Liverpool in the development of its Global City Gallery. The work undertaken with NML will form the basis of your dissertation. To apply you should have at least an upper 2.1, preferably with a first-class mark at dissertation, in History (or an equivalent discipline). In particular, you must be able to demonstrate an interest and expertise in Imperial History with interests or expertise in maritime and/or museum/heritage studies as highly desirable. Previous experience of the museum/heritage sector would also be desirable (though not essential).

To apply you should complete an application form for the MA programme (see: <https://www.ljmu.ac.uk/study/courses/postgraduates/modern-history>) In addition, you should include a 500-word statement outlining your suitability for the bursary. The application deadline is 9 July 2021. Interviews are planned for week commencing 19 July.

For further information please contact Prof. Nick White: n.j.white@ljmu.ac.uk.

